- 1 No Response Given
- 2 The instructor showed a lot of enthusiasm while teaching. He made the class very interesting. I learned a lot from this class; more than I figured I would going into it. I would definitely recommend this professor to fellow students!
- 3 He was extremely energetic in class, perpetuated some very interesting discussions and overall, strived to make us understand the theories behind communication. He was willing to help, as was evidenced through his review for the exams out of his own personal time, his class participation discussions, and his eagerness to research communication through experiments. Great class, great professor.

- 3 Positive- he has a great personality is well read in research. During class, the examples and descriptions of real life application to communications were so entertaining, that it held your attention despite the long length of lecture time. :) Keep the subservient chicken and the e Trade commercial with the babies. Awesome.
